UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

Study of Collaborative Efforts Between UW-Superior and University of Minnesota-Duluth

Motion:

Move to require the UW-System to create a task force and produce a study on possible collaborative efforts between UW-Superior with UM-Duluth.

Specify that the study would:

- Analyze the "Tri-College program" involving North Dakota State University, Minnesota State University at Moorhead and Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota;
- Consider similar models of collaboration between public universities around the country;
- Identify opportunities for operational cooperation or consolidation that would produce financial savings for taxpayers and students;
- Determine whether the two universities might benefit from coordinated marketing efforts; and
- Explore whether coordination and cooperation between the two universities can increase the educational offerings available to their students.

Require that the UW System report its findings and make recommendations to the Joint Committee on Finance and the standing committees for higher education in each house by March 1, 2006.
